Ike Scores Triumph as Tax Revision Bill Passes House

IKE, MacARTHUR HUDDLE IN HIGH STRATEGY TALK. Two old friends, President Eisenhower and General of the Army Douglas MacArthur get together in the White House for a discussion of the general strategic and military situation of the world It was MacArthur s first participation in a high strategy talk since he was fired by ex-President Harry S Truman in April, 1951 as Far Eastern commander The President presumably asked MacArthur his views on the controversial 'new look' in U S strategy.

Vietminh Regroup

French Await New Indochina Assault

HANOI, Indochina (AP)—The Vietminh and the French kept up their violent artillery duel at Dien Bien Phu today but there still was no resumption of massed rebel infantry charges trying to overwhelm the French Union s northwest Indochina fortress

Under a full moon and a star-studded sky and on into the morning the shelling and heavy French air strikes on the rebel positions kept up around the clock.

Patrol Contact Only

Some ground contacts yesterday were reported but they were only clashes between advanced French forces and small rebel units on the south and southwest fringes of the French-held plain Some of these came within 250 yards of French command posts

The defenders still anticipated another major Vietminh effort on the northern entrance to the heart of the fortress The Vietminh hold hill positions in the northern perimeter they captured from the French early this week in the battle which began last Saturday.

Some French sources speculated yesterday that the continuing artillery barrage might be covering a Vietminh withdrawal that Vietminh Gen Vo Nguyen Giap might have had enough after losing an estimated 12,000 dead or wounded —one fourth of the force he is believed to have in the area

Vietminh Rush Supplies

But a French army spokesman said last night the Vietminh still were rushing supplies by coolie train and truck up to the area indicating another mass assault was in the offing The rebels broke off the desperate charges Wednesday night

As the artillery duel raged French fighters and bombers strafed rocketed and fire-bombed the bulk of the rebel forces concentrated just north and northeast of the 6-by 4 mile oval plain

They knocked out a string of rebel gun emplacements and showered fire bombs on a convoy of trucks moving up to the northern part of the plain, presumably carrying fresh war equipment to bolster the next charge

Throughout the day the French parachuted fresh troops ammunition and war supplies to the besieged defenders They were still confident they could continue to mow down any further mass assaults and wreck what has become the biggest Vietminh effort of the stalemated, seven-year Indochina war

Fortress Shelled

With guns in every one of the hills surrounding the plain the Vietminh covered all the vital defense points and shelled the French positions at will They pumped over thousands of shells

During yesterday the Vietminh ignored French radio appeals to permit empty transport planes to land on the Dien Bien Phu airstrip and evacuate wounded They shelled and damaged one transport as it landed wounding a French medical officer

A State Department announcement said also that Russia has given the United States certain proposals ' on atomic problems, and that these are under study Presumably the Soviet proposals are for some kind of international agreement to ban atomic weapons

The plan given to Zarubin by Dulles is a detailed program for carrying out the proposal President Eisenhower made in an address to the United Nations Dec 8 for an international atomic pool under a world wide atomic energy agency

Businessmen Here Polled on Bus Proposal

A plan to poll Marion businessmen for their approval of a proposal to help a new bus company get started in the city was reported progressing today by Jack E Lautenslager assistant secretary of the Chamber of Commerce

A bulletin giving full details of the plan has been written and will be mailed out to members of the Retail Merchants Division as soon as it is mimeographed he said

Meanwhile several merchants who were unable to attend a meeting Wednesday afternoon when the proposal was explained have added their approval Lautenslager said

The proposal is for all merchants in the division to share in an anticipated $100-a-day loss of the new bus firm by the purchase of a total of $50 worth of bus tokens a day

Cost to individual merchants will range from as little as 17 cents a day to no more than $2 75 Lautenslager said

He urged that merchants make their decision on approval or disapproval of the plan as quickly as possible and make their reply within a day or two after they receive the bulletin This is because officials of the Springfield City Lines Inc who hope to start the new bus company say they can put the buses on the streets within 10 days after the merchants give their answer

Israel To Ask Action of U.N. On Massacre

Ambush Slaying of 11 By Armed Arab Gang Is Blamed on Jordan

JERUSALEM (AP)—Israel readied a demand today for United Nations action on the ambush slaying of 11 Jews on a desert bus The government blamed neighboring Jordan for what it termed an organized attack by armed Arabs from that Middle East country

Jordan promptly denied any responsibility for the assault, which occurred Wednesday 12 miles from its border at Scorpion Pass in the barren Negev Desert A spokesman at Amman the Jordan capital, said his country was ready 'politically and militarily to meet any developments that might arise '

Incident Called Serious

The incident was the most serious in Palestine since the 11 nation U N Security Council censured Israel for the slaying of 53 Arabs last October in the Jordan border village of Kibya

Tension over the latest incident mounted amid unconfirmed reports of Israeli and Arab troop movements Lebanese newspapers said in dispatches from Jordan that Israeli troops were concentrating at the frontier between the two countries Travelers reported on arrival at the Lebanese capital of Beirut they had seen Syrian military equipment moving southward through Damascus toward that country's border with Israel

The Arab and Jewish nations still are technically in a state of war although an uneasy cease fire ended the Palestine War of 1948

Four Survive Attack

In Wednesday s incident a woman and child seriously wounded, and two Israeli soldiers were the only survivors Nine men and two women were killed

Two U N observers accompanied by Israeli army and police trackers and a pack of bloodhounds trailed the attackers for 10 miles in the direction of the Jordan border but darkness halted them six miles from the border

An emergency meeting of the U N sponsored joint Israel Jordan Mixed Armistice Commission called to consider the Israeli complaint on the incident was adjourned yesterday until the observers came through with their final report

Jordan Blamed

Charging the attack was a 'warlike act an Israeli spokesman said Jordan bears all responsibility for the slaying

The spokesman said the government intends to place the matter before the United Nations, probably coupling a strong protest with a demand for Security Council action Israeli diplomats were instructed to hand the Israeli account of the attack to the United States Britain and France and all other U N members

Truck Struck By Passenger Train at Galion

No One Injured; NYC Tracks Tied Up Two Hours by Wreckage

GALION — No one was injured in a spectacular truck-train wreck in Galion yesterday

Train schedules were held up for two and one half hours when a New York Central passenger train bound for Cincinnati collided with a loaded truck owned by the Omaha Standard Truck Co of Council Bluffs, Ia

At 2 35 p m yesterday the large tractor trailer outfit driven by Wilbur E Banks 26 of Omaha Neb was driving slowly across the Sherman St crossing in Galion Banks said he failed to see the approaching train—there are no automatic signal lights at the crossing which is two blocks away from the Galion depot

Banks managed to jump clear of the tractor and, though shaken up was uninjured The train struck the trailer, broke it loose from the tractor and carried it about 550 feet down the track It was badly wrecked only the wheels and tires remaining intact The wreckage blocked both the north and south bound New York Central tracks A yard engine an automobile wrecker and a crane from the nearby Hercules Steel Products Corp were brought in to clear the track

The train engine sustained sufficient damage that a replacement for it was needed before trip to Cincinnati could be resumed

The truck was carrying a cargo of eight small dump bodies manufactured by the Perfection Steel Body Co of Galion These were reported by observers to be extensively damaged

A large crowd of people was attracted to the scene of the accident

Seek Censored Data

All Facts in Army's Report Being Aired

WASHINGTON (AP)—Sen Symington (D-Mo) pledged today that the public will get all the facts that were censored out of an Army memorandum critical of Sen McCarthy (R Wis) and his staff, if the Pentagon still has them

Publication of the memorandum touched off a sharp controversy between Secretary of the Army Robert T Stevens and McCarthy and his chief aides Symington established yesterday that parts of it had been deleted The memorandum detailed instances in which McCarthy and the chief counsel of his subcommittee Roy Cohn allegedly sought special treatment for Pvt G David Schine, a former committee aide

Will Furnish Missing Parts

Secretary of Defense Wilson and other Pentagon officials promised the Senate Armed Services Committee yesterday that these missing parts together with stenographers transcripts of telephone conversations in the dispute would be handed to any congressional committee asking them

Wilson assured the committee he was not going to try to hide anything '

Other Pentagon officials have said some profanity was struck out of the memorandum

In Chicago yesterday McCarthy declined comment on Wilson s testimony but said We ll have all the story complete before we get through '

Wilson said among other things he has full confidence in the truthfulness of Stevens and the Army report

Chairman Saltonstall (R Mass) who failed in attempts to steer the Armed Services Committee away from the dispute said in an interview he would not ask for the previously omitted material

Wants No Part of It

He noted that McCarthy s own investigations subcommittee with Sen Mundt (R SD) as acting chairman already has promised public hearing on the Stevens McCarthy row and I hope and pray we won t get into that

Informed of this Symington the only senator serving on both groups said

I m promising that if the Armed Services Committee does not ask for them and make them public that the investigations group will

Mundt said in an interview the McCarthy subcommittee would listen sympathetically and attentively ' to such a suggestion if it is made officially

If the McCarthy group does not bring out all the facts eventually Saltonstall said his armed Services Committee may step in But he refused to say how soon that might be

Meanwhile, Saltonstall called on the Army and Air Force for a detailed list of just how many Communists subversives loyalty cases and security risks they had handled in recent years He said he was satisfied there was only an infinitesimal amount of subversion in the armed forces

Navy Says Record Clean

Navy spokesmen testified yesterday they have no 'known Communists on active or inactive lists now and none who ever claimed the Fifth Amendment when questioned about communism

The Navy also said 41 officers and men had been discharged as security risks since 1949 and seven officers allowed to resign under other than honorable conditions "

Symington and Sen Margaret Chase Smith (R Maine) rebuked the Army and Air Force when they were unable to supply similar data

Stevens Blasts 'Irresponsible' Critics of Army

CHARLESTON S C (AP)—Secretary of the Army Robert T Stevens said today, It is deplorable that the Army . . and especially its senior officers should too often be the target for irresponsible criticism

However Stevens did not mention McCarthy in his talk prepared for the inauguration of retired Gen Mark W Clark as president of The Citadel historic military school in Charleston

The secretary said however, he is determined to defend the Army, its prestige and integrity '

He said that nothing was more detrimental to the military service than the feeling among its members that they are held in low esteem by their fellow citizens ' Any action which fosters such a conclusion strikes at the tap roots of our security he said

He said also that President Eisenhower s expressed opinion that military leaders must not be thrust into the political arena to become involved in partisan politics has too often been forgotten or flouted "

Democratic Move Beaten In Close Vote

Party Lines Hold Firm On Income Tax Slash; Senate Battle Expected

WASHINGTON (AP) — President Eisenhower chalked up a big victory in House passage yesterday of a major tax revision bill without a personal income tax cut he opposed but an even tougher fight was shaping up in the Senate today

With party lines holding unusually firm the House beat down 210 204 a Democratic move to slash income taxes $2 400 000 000 a year by raising the personal exemption for each taxpayer and dependent from $600 to $700

The President went to the country by television and radio Monday night to urge defeat of this proposal He said it was politically inspired and would be a serious blow to the government s finances even endangering national defense

Reactions Vary

The whole tax issue is certain to be aired at length in the coming campaign for control of Congress There were sharply varying appraisals of yesterday s House action

Rep Kirwan of Ohio, chairman of the Democratic Congressional Campaign Committee said that as a result he has raised from 45 to 60 his estimate of anticipated Democratic gains in the House in November His Republican counterpart Rep Richard M Simpson of Pennsylvania replied that the tax action will bring votes to the GOP He predicted Republican gains of 25 House seats

As the battle over the higher exemption proposal shifted to the Senate, the administration appeared to face an even tougher fight than it had in the House.

One GOP Senate leader conceded privately he believed the $100 increase in exemptions would pass the Senate, where there are 48 Democrats to 47 Republicans In that case the final version would have to be worked out in a conference between the two branches

Implied Veto

Just before the House vote yesterday Republican Leader Halleck of Indiana implied in a speech that Eisenhower would veto the revision bill if the Democratic proposal won

In the showdown only 10 of the 211 Republicans voting supported the exemption increase Nine Democrats opposed it as compared with 193 who voted aye ' The lone Independent voted for it

The House afterwards passed by a 339 80 vote the 875-page tax revision bill to which the Democrats had tried to attach the reduction in income levies

This measure would rewrite the entire tax code for the first time in 70 years It covers such a broad range of subjects that Senate floor consideration of it may not come for two or three months

Senate Democrats believe they have a big asset in that veteran Sen George (D-Ga), dean of the Senate, is leading the battle in

McCarthy Sets Reply to Adlai Despite Illness

MILWAUKEE (AP)—Sen McCarthy (R Wis) was confined to bed with virus laryngitis and a temperature of 103 today but said he still planned to make tonight what he has billed as his reply to a speech by Adlai E Stevenson, the 1952 Democratic presidential nominee

Dr Rauif Hanson who examined McCarthy at his hotel, said, ' The senator has a virus laryngitis with a sore throat and a high temperature I strongly advised against his working Friday night but he insists he is going to

"His condition was brought on by overwork, excessive fatigue and exposure. What he needs is a day or two of rest but I don't know if I can hold him down "

Stevenson, the 1952 Democratic presidential nominee, charged in a March 6 speech in Miami that ' political plungers" had persuaded President Eisenhower that McCarthyism is the best Republican formula for political success."

Auto Stickers Available From Junior C. of C.

Slogan for Bumpers Will Be Distributed In Marion Tomorrow

Date for the distribution of some 1,000 bumper stickers to Marion motorists was announced at a meeting of the Junior Chamber of Commerce Thursday night at the YMCA.

William Flach, president, said the stickers—which carry the motto "Make Courtesy Your Code of the Road"—will be given away Saturday, March 27.

Motorists who wish one of the stickers for their bumpers may go to the west side of Orchard St. between Holmes Pl. and W. Church St. between 1:30 and 4:30 p.m. to obtain the stickers, Flach said.

Distribution of the stickers is a part of a nationwide campaign to make "courtesy" a highway byword. The campaign is sponsored by city police, the state highway patrol, the National Safety Council, and two other highway safety organizations.

Reason for the campaign is to make all motorists interested in their motoring manners, and through their courtesy to other drivers help avoid accidents. The National Safety Council claims that when a person gets in the driver's seat of an automobile he too often changes into a driver who is "drunk" with the power at his command and displays it by discourtesy to other drivers. Since this can and often does result in serious or fatal traffic accidents, the council hopes to eliminate it during the courtesy campaign.

In other activities at the monthly dinner meeting, Jack E. Lautenslager, assistant secretary of the Chamber of Commerce and a past president of the JayCees, was guest speaker. His topic was "You and Your Community." He discussed the responsibility of everyone to make their community a better place in which to live.

Following the dinner meeting, the group went on a tour of the offices and plant of the General Telephone Co. of Ohio which is located on S. Main St.

Taxes

that branch for the boost in exemptions.

George is the Democrats' leading tax expert and has been considered a conservative in financial matters.

His plan would boost exemptions to $800 for this year, at a revenue cost of 4½ billion dollars, and $1,000 in 1955 and thereafter, with an annual revenue loss of 8 billion.

Knows of GOP Support

George said in an interview today he knew of some firm support for his proposal on the Republican side.

"A lot of them would like to go along," he said. "But the administration will put the pressure on them and try to keep them in line."

The Finance Committee met again today in closed session to try to report out a House bill to cut 25 excise taxes by a total of 912 million dollars.

The administration opposes the reduction but indications were the committee would not restore any of the revenue knocked out by the House.

The permanent revision program in the general tax bill would cost about $1,400,000,000 in revenue the first year, Democrats say the loss would mount to 3½ billions when all provision take full effect; Republicans dispute this.

The bill would permit corporations to make bigger depreciation deductions during the first years of use of plant and equipment. It also would cut taxes on dividends paid to stockholders.

Many Fringe Benefits

It would carry a wide variety of fringe benefits for individuals, including increased deductions for medical expenses, deductions for child-care expenses of working widows, deductions to farmers for soil conservation expenses, dependency deductions for college students even though they earn more than $600, and additional deductions on retirement income.

Another provision would extend for a year from April 1 the present 52 per cent corporate income tax rate. Under present law it is due to drop to 47 per cent at the end of this month, which would mean a revenue loss of $1,200,000,000.

Two men, Raymond Black of Galion, and Charles Mauk of Bucyrus, who were sentenced to the penitentiary from Crawford County, will be eligible for rehearing. Notice of the hearing for Wilson and rehearing for the other two prisoners was mailed from the London Prison Farm, London, O., this week.

Wilson was sentenced to life imprisonment at the Ohio State Penitentiary following his plea of guilty to murder in the second degree on April 7, 1944. He is now confined to the London Prison Farm. Black was sentenced for breaking and entering and for larceny, and Mauk for auto theft. Both men are confined to the London Prison Farm.

Inhalator Run Made,

City firemen answered two fire alarms and the inhalator crew was called out once Thursday.

No loss was reported in either fire. At 7:40 p.m. Central station firemen were called to the rear of the residence of Carl Hart at 683 Bellefontaine Ave. when neighbors saw some rubbish burning. Firemen said they put out the rubbish fire.

W. Center St. station firemen were called to the rear of 1021 W. Center St. at 4:10 p.m. where another rubbish fire had set grass on fire.

The inhalator call was to the residence of Albert W. Walters of 496 S. Grand Ave. Inhalator crewmen reported Walters was suffering a heart attack and they used the inhalator on him successfully for 30 minutes. He was then taken to City Hospital in a Hughes ambulance for further treatment.

UNION ACCOUNT CORRECTED

In an account of a National Labor Relations Board hearing in Marion carried in Thursday's edition of The Star, C. M. Bowman, who represented a local independent union of die room employes at the Eaton Manufacturing Co., was erroneously identified as being a spokesman for the United Auto Workers (CIO). Representing the Auto Workers at the Wednesday hearing was Stanley S. Cutcher.

Patrol Reports 14 Arrests in District Traffic

A total of 14 traffic arrests was made yesterday by the Marion post of the state highway patrol including nine during a radar speed check at Brush Ridge.

Patrol officers said the check was made in a 40-mile-an-hour zone as a result of complaints of excessive speding through that section. The check was held between 1:30 and 3:30 p.m. yesterday.

Among the nine drivers arrested was Mildred M. Durst, 17, of Fostoria, who was on her way to Marion to appear in Juvenile Court on an earlier citation for passing on a yellow line, patrolmen said. She arrived in court on schedule and was tried on both counts. Judge Edward Ruzzo ordered her license suspened until her 18th birthday.

Also arrested in the radar check and scheduled for Municipal Court appearances were Ralph H. Bowman, 53, Wharton; Lester L. Dickey, 51, 631 Windsor St.; Elmer B. Lawrence, 70, Upper Sandsuky; Milo Hengsteler, 47, Fostoria; Roland Teeter Jr., 32, Delaware; Nellie N. Tune, Tiffin; James Bowman, 25, Delaware; and Russell F. Gottier, 44, Wharton.

Arested elsewhere on speeding charges were William C. Clauer, 31, 225 Uhler Ave., cited for Municipal Court; Robert N. Bates, 29, Dunkirk, cited for Mayor's Court in Cardington; Basil McGee, 35, Mansfield, fined $15 and costs by Mayor Don Healea of Cardington; and James A. Lancaster, 29, Canton, fined $30 and costs by Mount Gilead Mayor Emery M. Murphy.

Glenn H. Skinner, 26, of near Prospect, was cited to appear before Mayor Murphy on a charge of driving without a muffler.

Cub Pack Planned By PTA at Olney

The Olney Ave. School PTA last night decided to sponsor a cub scout pack. The decision was reached after a talk by Howard Ziegler, who explained the advantage of "cubbing" to young boys. When formed, the cub pack will be the first such organization sponsored by the Olney Ave. PTA unit. William Diem was appointed institutional representative.

The meeting was an official men's night Floyd Arthur presided, and Melvin Keeran acted as secretary. The men in attendance came dressed in work clothes and prior to the meeting they bundled and loaded scrap paper into a truck. The paper had been collected at the school by students and mothers.

Devotions were given by Rev. Earl Holliday of the Maranatha Bible Church. Refreshments were served.

Blaze Sweeps Farm At Blooming Grove

CRESTLINE — An $8,500 blaze destroyed a barn, tool shed and $2,000 worth of farm machinery at the Jay Appleman farm, east of Blooming Grove Thursday afternoon.

Crestline firemen answered the call about 4:40 p.m. Thursday. Fire Chief Ronald Saum said the fire started when a brush fire, attended by Appleman's brother-in-law, Grace A. Mickley, got out of control and spread to the barn.

Value of the barn was placed at $5,000 while the tool shed was estimated at $1,500 and farm machinery in the two buildings at $2,000.

Saum said a 1,000 gallon pumper truck and tank wagon were used at the blaze.

Edison Firemen Answer Call to Farm at Iberia

IBERIA — A five-acre clover field was swept by fire Thursday at the Ralph Garverick farm, four miles southeast of Iberia.

The fire apparently started when wind pulled a burning ember from a trash pile into grass near the farm buildings. The flames at various times threatened the barn, chicken and brooder houses, and a wooded area.

The Edison volunteer fire department received the alarm about 3 p.m. Thursday.

Four Marion Boys Cited

Four Marion boys were cited to appear before Juvenile Officer Virgil Campbell after city police investigated complaints against them Thursday.

Two of the boys, 11 and 14 years old, were involved in a street fight on Creston Ave. Their mothers were asked to appear with them.

The other two 12 and 13, were cited for throwing a rock at a passing police cruiser driven by Patrolman C. N. Dyke.

CHAPEL PROPERTY DAMAGED

Vandalism on the Oak Knolls Chapel property southwest of Marion was reported to the Marion County sheriff's office Thursday afternoon. Malcolm E. Kates of 415 Uncapher Ave. told the sheriff's office that holes had been made in the garage and limbs had been cut from several trees.

Marion Kiwanis Club Members Entertain Wives at Dinner Party

About 115 Kiwanians and their wives attended the club's spring ladies' dinner party last night at Hotel Harding. The group was entertained by Mrs. James Grimes of Columbus, who sang folk songs.

Mrs. Grimes, wife of an Ohio State University professor, sang tales of Ohio events, political affairs and river boating. She played a dulcimer and an autoharp for accompaniment.

The group also was entertained by the Kiwanis' twin piano team of Richard D. Myers and George Lane. One of their medlies, "Girl's Tunes," was dedicated to the women present.

Guests introduced were Mr. and Mrs. John Lightner, Mrs. Gladys Clark Arter, and William Morgan.

Wives of new Kiwanis members were introduced. They included: Mrs. Smith Witter, Mrs. Marvin Ludwig and Mrs. John Head.

Rev. Martin Hollensen, Kiwanis president, fell victim to a prank by the club. A lover of ties, he was presented with approximately 40 loud ties, including one made of canvas.

John Waddell served as master of ceremonies and Elmer Weimer gave the invocation.

Freedoms Intact

By George Sokolsky

SOKOLSKY

The essential difference between the United States and some other countries is not that Americans have a higher standard of living but that they have been graced with a larger budget of individual liberties in which they are protected by a written Constitution. Among those freedoms is the right to speak and write according to one's own conscience and, by inference, to read and think in freedom. This is the essence of academic freedom, which means the right of a teacher to teach according to his conscience.

It has been held by our courts that no right is absolute. For instance, an unfortunate professor may prefer vulgar four-letter words, but should he employ such obscenities in a class of boys and girls, he could be fired for misconduct just as a writer, while exercising his freedom, commits a libel at his peril or may be arrested for issuing salacious literature.

DR. EINSTEIN, in a reply to five questions on civil liberties and academic freedom said of this:

"The threat to academic freedom in our time must be seen in the fact that, because of the alleged external danger to our country, freedom of teaching, mutual exchange of opinions, and freedom of press and other media of communication are encroached upon or obstructed.

"This is done by creating a situation in which people feel their economic positions is endangered. Consequently, more and more people avoid expressing their opinion freely, even in their private social life.

"This is a state of affairs which a Democratic government cannot survive in the long run."

This is not correct. During the past fortnight this country has suffered a visitation of furious freedom of expression of opinions on all sides, pro, con and indifferent, wise and stupid, true and false, on the issues arising over Sen. McCarthy. No person, no newspaper, no radio commentator was afraid to speak his mind.

-:-

WHY SHOULD the professors be afraid? Of course, if a professor wishes to be an advocate instead of an objective scholar, he has to take the consequences of his choice. If a professor advocates murder, rape, arson or treason, he has just cause to fear for his "economic position." But if a professor teaches his pupil the table of valence or the development of sociology, no one will interfere with him and no one has.

Dr. Einstein says, for instance, that freedom of the press has been encroached upon. When? Where? What are his examples? The "Daily Worker" is still being published in freedom. There is no censorship. Let me quote a sentence as an example of blatant irresponsibility:

"Now, when I find my work honored in your country, but disnonored by the Fascists of America, I can know that I am fit company for decent men."

This, written by Albert Maltz for the "Taliche Rundschau," a Communist newspaper in East Berlin, appeared in "The Worker" for Sunday, March 14. Maltz calls us Fascists but finds himself in fit company in East Germany. Maltz says in this article:

Now thieving, demagogic politicians like the intellectual cretin, Senator McCarthy, are deciding more and more what books Americans may read, what films they may see, what radio and television programs may entertain (i.e. corrupt) their leisure hours . . ."

MALTZ, OF COURSE, lies, for neither McCarthy nor any other Senator can tell us what to read. Not even the President can tell us what to listen to on the radio or television.

Einstein and Maltz are describing conditions which do not exist in the United States, controls over us that have not been established, fears that no one has except those who are guilty of something, or who are pathologically anxious.

Professor Einstein ought to read the numerous press of New York, printed in scores of languages and representing all the diversities of human opinion.

Einstein says:

"It is important for the defense of civil rights that assistance be given to the victims of this defense who in the above-mentioned inquisitions have refused to testify, and beyond that to all those who through these inquisitions have suffered material loss in any way . . ."

He ends by making an appeal for funds for those who refuse to answer. In a word, he is advising his followers to risk contempt rather than to tell the truth as they know it.

House of Labor

By Victor Riesel

RIESEL

If the House of Morgan wants to know where there are loose billions lying around for heavy investments, some successor to J.P. need only telephone the House of Labor.

Startling new figures soon to be released by Gov. Thomas E. Dewey's aides, who have just completed a study of New York's 600 welfare funds, are the basis for the estimate that some 20 billion dollars belonging to such funds is available for investment across the land.

In New York State alone, the authorities have discovered that there are $2,500,000,000 in cash and bonds on hand as surplus in welfare funds. This money has been accumulated as leftovers from payments by employers of 350 million dollars annually into these funds — not all of which are joint union-management trusts. Some are set up by employers alone in non-unionized plants.

SINCE ONLY slightly more than 70 cents of each dollar paid into these funds is used to buy insurance policies and other welfare benefits for the members, there are millions left over which flow into the multi-billion dollar reserve each year in New York alone.

Insurance experts believe that there is about 10 times this much money gathering in welfare funds across the whole country.

This is indeed one of the nation's major industries today. John Lewis' United Mine Workers alone spent $139,963,949.52 in the fiscal year ending June 30, 1953.

The Brotherhood of Railroad Trainmen has approximately 134 million dollars worth of insurance in force — and legal reserves of some 50 million.

The Teamsters Union has hundreds of millions of dollars in special insurance funds. Dave Beck has told me.

All this has mushroomed (and is still growing) into a vast industry in just over 10 years. The first real bargaining for welfare funds began in 1943.

TO SHOW HOW huge this business is, take the example of one broker and adviser on welfare funds — a Martin Segal, who does it 'legal.' He is a labor consultant today to 450 welfare programs from coast-to-coast.

Segal does such a volume of business that by charging only one per cent of the premiums handled for administrative costs his firm takes in some $600,000 a year. Two per cent would be a very fair fee—which means that even the most exact and scrupulous agents can make well over a million dollars on that volume of business.

The first official study of this new industry has just been completed by Gov. Dewey — who launched it after a thug by the name of Tommy Lewis was shot to death. Lewis was leader of a small Janitor's and Race Track Employes Union of 4,665 members and had looted the union's welfare fund of some $275,000.

Gov. Dewey's special investigators wanted to see just what was happening in the other 599 funds in the state. They found that slightly less than 10 per cent of them were crooked — and that the other 90 per cent were honestly, though not always efficiently run.

So Dewey's specialists prepared a bill — which was then submitted to labor leaders for criticism. This bill would be the nation's first welfare fund legislation.

THE PROPOSED LAW insists that all funds be registered and subject to regulation like other insurance.

The bill give the state superintendent of insurance jurisdiction over all welfare and trust funds — and, note this well, also over funds set up by companies without a union. Provided, of course, that the employer obligates himself in written contract to give his people benefits regularly.

To keep things clean, the suggested legislation seeks to keep tab on all who draw money from the operation of such funds.

Gov. Dewey's department would want information on all payments to trustees, their agents and relatives, and to all employes of the welfare fund. No one would be able to draw a dime from such funds directly or indirectly without the state being aware of it.

There would be annual reports on forms submitted by the insurance superintendent. Each trustee would be responsible for the fund's operation. And the state would have the right to examine the books of all funds.

Furthermore, full reports on fund expenditures and assets would be the absolute right of all employers and union members involved. To enforce this, the state superintendent of insurance wants $400,000 this year.

He means business. But why not? This truly is big business.

Electric Organ

By Hal Boyle

NEW YORK

In the dim days before the juke box, America's favorite musical instrument was the old-fashioned foot-pumped reed organ.

Its quavering notes sounded in nearly every rural church and most prosperous farm homes. In great grandmother's heyday, many a girl turned the heart of her beau to quivering jelly by her masterly rendition of "Annie Laurie" on the old parlor organ.

HAL BOYLE

"You pump, Hiram," she said, tenderly, "and I'll play," and the next thing dazed Hiram knew he had signed up to buy her pork chops for the rest of his life.

—:—

THEN THE PIANO came into high fashion and swept the organ out of favor. But today the organ —it's glamorized now and electronic —is making a big comeback. It's a 75 million dollar industry and growing rapidly.

"In 10 years the electronic organ will be America's most popular home musical instrument," predicted Burton Minshall, 46, one of the leading manufacturers in the field.

"By that time it will sound like a one-man symphony. We've learned a great deal just in the last three years about the electronic reproduction of sound. In the lab we can reproduce any known musical sound, including those of the percussion instruments, such as drums, cymbals and castanets.

"The home electronic organ soon will be a complete one-man band."

Minshall, who has helped revolutionize the industry, got into it by accident—trying to please his wife. He was a young radio repairman back in 1929 when his wife, Madaline, expressed a desire for an old-type organ such as she had played as a girl in the home of her grandmother.

"We didn't have any money," Minshall recalled. "So I decided to take a crack at building one for her.

"I knew nothing about it, and made more than a dozen false starts over the years, using seat-of-the-pants engineering. It became my hobby."

TEN YEARS AFTER he started out on the project Minshall finally presented his wife with a successful home-made electronic organ, constructed largely out of old radio parts that cost him $40.

"Some of our neighbors heard my wife playing the organ and suggested I ought to make another one and sell it," Minshall said.

"So in 1940 I made a second organ. I tried to sell it to 13 funeral directors. Twelve said there was no market for an electronic organ—but the 13th bought it."

He built a third organ. He and his wife put it in a truck he borrowed from a friend and toured all the funeral homes and churches in a 60-mile radius. Madaline played the organ, Minshall pitched the sales talk.

Within a year the couple had built and sold 40 organs and brought in $30,000. They were in business, and the business began doubling every year.

"My wife worked as hard as I did," Minshall said.

TODAY THEY have 200 employees, two plants—in London, Ontario and Brattleboro, Vt.—and in 1953 had a five million dollar volume. Their market has spread from the United States and Canada to 19 foreign countries.

"In 1948 less than five per cent of our organs went to private homes," said Minshall. "Now the picture is reversed. About 80 per cent are bought for home pleasure. People are interested in a simple musical instrument with a variety of tone colors that is easy to play. Some 40 per cent of our customers never played a musical instrument before.

"The big advantage of the electronic organ over the piano is that even a horrible musician gets by beautifully on it."

Minshall's research goal now is to produce that one-man symphony electronic organ—so that anyone with a musical yearning can be his own Toscanini.

Officer in Greenlease Case Divorced by Wife

ST. LOUIS —Mrs. Florence Shoulders, wife of ex-police Lt. Louis Shoulders, who was instrumental in the capture of the Greenlease kidnapers here, was granted a divorce yesterday.

Circuit Judge James F. Nangle ruled Mrs. Shoulders was the "innocent and injured party" and granted her $200 a month alimony.

Shoulders previously told newsmen he would marry Miss June George, his landlady, as soon as he was free to do so.

He goes on trial for perjury in Kansas City Federal Court April 12. The charge is based on Shoulders' testimony before a federal grand jury on his handling of Greenlease ransom money.

Farmer Drives for 23 Years Without License

EPHRATA, Pa. — It was a little embarrassing when the state policeman stopped 60-year-old Martin L. Sites, a Lancaster County farmer and asked to see his driver's license.

Sites had to explain that he hadn't "bothered to get one" for some time — something like 23 years.

Called before a justice of the peace, he explained he began driving 30 years ago and got a license annually for seven years. Then, he said, he decided it "just wasn't worth the trouble" and never got another. He said it was the first time he had been stopped by police.

Musicians To Present Two-Piano Work, Solos

The program of duo-piano music featuring Miss Sally Schneider and Ben Bechtel at Hotel Harding ballroom Sunday afternoon will include besides the two-piano work solos by each of the young musicians.

This recital, open to the public without charge, will be given under sponsorship of the Phi of Ohio Chapter of Pi Mu, national music organization, of which the two young people are members, and they will be presented by their teacher and the chapter counselor, Mrs. H. T. Williams, at 3 o'clock.

Both students are active in music circles in the community, at Harding High School, and church. Bechtel is accompanist for the orchestra at First Presbyterian Church instead of for the Harding High School orchestra as was stated in an item concerning the Sunday concert which appeared in Wednesday night's Star.

Public Less Confident, Federal Survey Indicates

WASHINGTON (AP)—The Federal Reserve Board says its latest survey of what people think about their finances, and what spending plans they have, "leaves the impression that consumers were somewhat less confident than a year ago."

Answers to survey questions indicated the public will:

1. Buy somewhat fewer houses.
2. Buy somewhat fewer automobiles.
3. Cut furniture and household appliance purchases fairly sharply.
4. Step up spending for home improvements and maintenance.

Congressional Probe Started On Bomb Tests

WASHINGTON (AP) — Rep W Sterling Cole (R-NY) said today a congressional investigation is under way to determine whether avoidable errors were made during the monster hydrogen blast in the Pacific March 1

The Senate-House Atomic Energy Committee, which he heads has begun questioning Atomic Energy Commission officials in closed sessions, he said.

Two committee members, Representatives Price (D-Ill) and Van Zandt (R-Pa), yesterday called for a full-scale probe to learn why the 315 persons subjected to unexpected radiation exposure were allowed close enough to the blast zone to be endangered Van Zandt said questioning should include naval officers in command of the task force.

The blast, reportedly three or four times greater than expected spilled nuclear dust well beyond the hazard zone which had been drawn. Its power has been estimated at between 600 and 700 times that of the Hiroshima atom bomb, which killed 60,000 persons

Twenty-three Japanese fishermen, 80 miles away and outside the hazard zone, were badly burned Price said the fact they got that close to the blast indicated a Soviet submarine could have pierced through security precautions for a better vantage point.

A total of 28 American technicians and 264 natives, on several islands more than 100 miles away, were exposed to milder radiation

Sen Pastore (D-RI) and Rep Holifield (D-Calif), congressional observers at the test reported last night that the Americans and natives are "normal, happy and in the best of spirits"

They added in a joint letter released by the committee that they saw no evidences of radiation in a visit to the victims on Kwajalein and were told 'no permanent injury" was likely.

The legislators reported that the unexpected extent of the radiation exposure resulted from 'a larger explosion than expected" and unpredictable wind shifts

Marion Defeated 4-2, Trails Mohawks in Cup Action

Vejprava Misses Contest; Game Here Saturday Night

CINCINNATI — Despite a last-period rally, Marions Barons went down to their second straight loss at the hands of the Cincinnati Mohawks here last night, 4-2, to fall behind two games to one, in the best four-out-of-seven game International Hockey League playoff series between the two clubs.

Playing without their high-scoring forward, Gordie Vejprava, who was on the sidelines with a badly-bruised shoulder suffered Wednesday, the Barons were outmanned by the fresher Hawks.

Vejprava, who set a new IHL mark during the regular season when he shoved 58 goals past enemy goaltenders, had scored two goals in the opening game which Marion won 4-3.

To be exact, Marion had 11 men in uniform, two full forward lines, four defensemen and their goalie, to a full 15-man squad for Cincinnati.

The fourth contest of the series will take place Saturday night in Marion, with game No. 5 on tap back here Sunday night and the sixth tilt, if necessary, set for Tuesday night in Marion.

Fifteen penalties were called in the contest, witnessed by a crowd of 2,435, with a full-fledged riot threatened on a number of occasions.

The two-goal Marion outburst came early in the final period, after Cincinnati had piled up a 4-0 lead, with both tallies occuring only 51 seconds apart. Tony Poeta got the first and Ken Schultz the second.

It was Poetas third goal of the series and first for Schultz. Poeta had notched two in the 5-3 loss to the league champion Mohawks in the second game of their series Wednesday night here while assisting on the other.

Cincinnati got two in the first — by Art Rose and Bun Smith — and two more in the second, both of them by Billy Goold, as Marion Goalie Lou Crowdis was called on to make 31 saves to 17 for Charlie Hodge of the Mohawks.

Crowdis received a 10-minute misconduct penalty in the third period after engaging in a lively conversation with Referee Mickey Driullard. Dutch Delmonte served it out, with both Baron goals coming during that ten minutes.

The third period was marked by three fights. Steve Brklacich and McLenahan were sent to the penalty box at 6:49 on roughing penalties while Poeta and Smith went there on similar penalties at the 5:16 mark. At 17:47, Bouchard and Brklacich were charged with high-sticking and directed to the penalty box. All together, Cincinnatis Bouchard was sent to the penalty box four time, three in the opening period.

Mt. Gilead Ends Drills for Regional Tourney

SHORT SPORTS
By John Short

SHORT

Mount Gilead basketball fans were in full swing yesterday afternoon when business firms observed their regular Thursday afternoon closing and everyone had a chance to discuss their favorite topic, the Mount Gilead High School cage team.

Restaurants, service stations and other establishments that remain open through Thursday were drawing a lot of customers but may not have done much business.

We made a three-hour visit to the Morrow County village yesterday and the basketball team popped up in every conversation. The town is plastered with "Beat Westmont" cards as the Indians prepare for their tourney test tonight in the regional event at Troy.

PREDICTIONS on the team's performance tonight range from an indignant "We'll murder 'em" to the more sober "I'll be a tough game."

Many of the fans will tell you the Indians not only will oust Westmont tonight but will go on to win over rugged Lockland Wayne in the Saturday finals and then on to State laurels next week.

Pressure from the impending game has hit the village and the school's student body harder than the team. The Indians spent an abbreviated drill session yesterday after classes in sharpening their shooting eyes and brushing up on defensive maneuvers.

AT LEAST five bus loads of Mount Gilead boosters will be on hand at the Hobart Arena in Troy. That number already has been chartered. At least two disappointed fans, who won't be able to make the trip, have arranged with fans attending the game for telephone reports after each period.

One man did come up with a new conversation piece that normally would have caught on but failed to create any interest yesterday. He had just reached town from the state lake near Mount Gilead and reported he had sighted several ducks on the water.

IT'LL BE DIFFERENT. Bobo Olson (left), who hails from Hawaii, strums a uke as Kid Gavilan, who hails from Cuba, does a dance step, during signing ceremonies in Chicago for their April 2 championship fight. The scrap will be for the middleweight championship which Bobo now holds. The Kid currently is welterweight king and is shooting to unseat Olson.

Rookie Players Spark Redlegs In Spring Bid

TAMPA, Fla. (AP)—Sideline predictions are mounting in the Cincinnati Redlegs camp that Johnny Temple and rookie Charlie Harmon will be in the starting lineup when the Reds open the National League season. Their ability at bat may be the deciding factor.

Harmon, who has been operating regularly at third base since Bobby Adams turned up with a sore arm, has been one of the most consistent Redleg hitters.

Temple, who was beaten out of the second base job through most of last season by Rocky Bridges, has been doing an equally good hitting job while Bridges has filled in for the injured Roy McMillan at shortstop. There never has been any question about Temple's fielding.

Temple got four hits yesterday as the Reds whipped the St. Louis Cardinals, 9-2.

Indians Engage Westmont In Second Contest at Troy

Mount Gilead High School moves into the regional tourney at Troy tonight in its bid for further state cage laurels. The Indians will be meeting Westmont, Darke County cage power from Hollansburg.

Les Grace, coach of the Central District champions, was on the sick list yesterday and today and was forced to remain away from his school duties. Robert Blose, superintendent at Mount Gilead, reported Grace had been sent home ill yesterday morning when he was hit by a minor flu epidemic which has been sweeping the town. His physician suggested he remain away today but Blose indicated Grace probably would be able to make the trip with his charges.

Gene West, Graces assistant, took over the reins yesterday and guided the team through a short drill session.

The Indians will be pitted against Westmont in the second game of tonights regional card. Lockland Wayne meets New Vienna in the first game, scheduled for 7 p.m. Westmont carries a 24-1 mark into the battle while Mount Gilead goes in with a 20-3 record.

The Indians only setbacks came at the hands of Cardington 50-49; Marion St. Mary 59-48 and Fredericktown 68-62. However, the team whipped St. Mary 53-51 in a prior meeting and downed Cardington 62-58 in a return match. Other Mount Gilead wins were over Crestline 60-48; Iberia 73-71; Elm Valley 48-47; Marysville 75-52; Crestline 67-39; Marengo 72-35; Johnsville 68-58; Edison 82-62; Caledonia 82-64; Richwood 64-52; Johnstown 78-46; Big Walnut 51-47; and Gambier 51-44.

The squad qualified for district tourney action with a 57-48 win over University High School in Columbus during the exempted and parochial tourney at Westerville.

In Central district play, it rolled by Bremen 66-46 by stopping high-scoring Dick Bogenrife and then came back to oust highly-touted Newark St. Francis 70-64 and Bremen 61-55 in overtime battles to reach the finals. In the title clash, the Indians dumped Williamsport 67-56.

Ted Moody, John Mosher, Dick Zolman, John Bachelder and John Staley will probably handle most of the duties in tonight's game.

All race horses become officially one year older each Jan. 1, regardless of the actual date of foaling.

12 Officials Attend

New League Considered By Harding, Three Foes

Twelve representatives from four schools, including Harding, met yesterday at Findlay High School to discuss the problems confonted in forming a new athletic league.

The four schools, already playing each other in major prep school sports, were Harding, Findlay, Fremont Ross and Sandusky.

The school officials also held a lenghty discussion of other activities to be conducted should the league be formed. A meeting was set for the first week in April for further discussion.

Representing Harding at the meeting were Lester L. Dickey, city superintendent; Cecil W. Gabler, principal at Harding; and Ken Somerlot, athletic coordinator.

Others at the meeting were Miss Zola D. Jacobs, city school superintendent at Findlay; G. R. Constine, Findlay research director; A. L. Mattoon, acting principal at Findlay High School; L. C. Keller, Findlay athletic director; Wallace Glenwright, principal at Sandusky High School; Victor Malinovsky, Findlay athletic director; A. E. Rupp, superintendent at Fremont; C. R. Cooper, principal at Fremont Ross; and John of athletics at Ross.

The proposed new league would replace the Buckeye League which collapsed this year when Tiffin Columbian, Bowling Green and Fostoria bowed out, leaving only Harding, Fremont and Findlay.

Threats Force Shift of Seven By Washington

WINTER GARDEN, Fla. (AP)—Washington Senators baseball officials reported a second warning to remove Negro players from their farm team training base here and said they will do it, although city officials insist they have imposed no racial ban.

The FBI is investigating the incident, which began when a man drove up to the camp Wednesday and reportedly told Zinn Beck, general manager of the Chattanooga Lookouts:

"Have those Negroes out by sundown and don't bring them back."

It was first reported the man was a uniformed policeman, but Ossie Bluege, director of the Washington farm system, said that was a mistake.

Joe Engel, president of the Chattanooga Lookouts, reported the second warning. He said an anonymous phone caller told him: "Get those Negroes out right away."

The seven Cuban Negroes, assigned to Charlotte, N. C., of the Class A South Atlantic League, were shifted to the parent Washington team's training base a nearby Orlando.

Regalado May Remain, Tribe Manager Hints

LAS VEGAS, Nev. (AP) — Rookie Rudy Regalado "has an excellent chance to stay with" the Cleveland Indians all season, Manager Al Lopez said today.

"The only question in my mind now is this: Is he a ready hitter," the manager continued, "I want to see if the Giants' pitchers—after they're in shape—can stop him."

Lopez said he first considered sending the native of Los Angeles to the Tribe's farm team at Indianapolis. But now he says it would be "great to have a boy like that around if something happened to (third baseman) Al Rosen or (second baseman) Bobby Avila."

Larry Doby took a called third strike for the third out yesterday with a full count and the bases filled as the Tribe lost to Baltimore, 7-6.

Brightest parts of the game for Cleveland were the three innings pitched by Art Houtteman, the ex-Detroit Tiger. Houtteman blanked the Orioles and gave up only one hit.

Hurley and McGee Win Armory Bout

Bowery Boy Hurley and Irish McGee teamed up to whip Marco Polo and Billy Fox in a 60-minute bout last night at the armory. McGee was subbing for the injured Bowery Boy Jack in the tag event.

The first fall went to the losers when Fox dropped McGee with a drop kick after 15 minutes. Fox submitted to a hammerlock after 11 minutes of the second fall and the third fall ended when Hurley pinned Polo with a body slam after 21 minutes.

Violet Vian and Joyce Ford wrestled to a no-contest verdict in the first 60-minute event. Both had won single falls when they fell from the ring in the third. The referee counted both out.

Scotty Williams won the 30-minute opener from Charlie Carr after 17 minutes with a body grapevine.

ABC Event To Open

SEATTLE (AP)—The biggest indoor sports tournament in the world begins a six-week program tomorrow when 32 teams launch the 1954 American Bowling Congress.

More than 16,000 bowlers will fire at the clustered pins before the 51st ABC ends May 3.

27-20 Edge

National League Squads Battering Rival Circuit

By RIP WATSON
AP Sports Writer

President Warren Giles of the National League is getting help from an unexpected source in his plea to the senior circuit clubs to beat the American Leaguers in spring training games.

The league president undoubtedly was confident the Brooklyn Dodgers could do well but who could expect the hitherto impotent Pittsburgh Pirates to win five games in as many starts against American League teams?

Yet that's just what the Pirates can boast of after slamming four runs for an 8-6 victory over the Washington Senators yesterday.

The Pirates perfect record, combined with Brooklyn's 7-0 mark, is chiefly responsible for the National League's 27-20 edge over the American in interleague battles.

Frank Thomas, the Bucs' leading slugger last year with 30 homers and 102 runs batted in, tagged Bob Porterfield for a home run in the fourth inning yesterday. Before the frame was over, Dale Long and Toby Atwell also had homers, and newly acquired Sid Gordon slammed one out of the park to account for the winning margin in the seventh inning.

The Dodgers recorded their seventh interleague victory — and ninth straight over-all—by making the most of three singles for a 4-1 victory over the New York Yankees. Meeting the Yanks for the first time since their unsuccessful try in last year's World Series, the Dodgers loaded the bases in the seventh and pushed across their runs on a fielder's choice, two bases on balls and Roy Campanella's long fly.

Another winning streak was snapped when Freddie Marsh's ninth-inning home run brought the Chicago White Sox a 5-4 victory over the Philadelphia Athletics, cutting short a string of seven successes. Johnny Thompson blanked the A's over the last four innings as the Philadelphians suffered their first loss of the spring.

The Baltimore Orioles, like the Athletics regarded as second-division material once the regular season begins, continued to fly high with a 7-6 victory over the Cleveland Indians. Bobby Young was the hero, with a base-clearing triple in the seventh inning.

The New York Giants won their fifth in a row, knocking over the Chicago Cubs 9-6 behind home runs by Henry Thompson and Willie Mays.

The Cincinnati Redlegs beat the St. Louis Cardinals 9-2. Johnny Temple rapped four singles to lead the Cincinnati attack.

Earl Torgeson, who no longer has to battle Eddie Waitkus for the Philadelphia Phillies first base job, put on a slugging show with two singles, a triple and a double in the Phils' 12-10 victory over Milwaukee. He also scored two runs and batted in two more.

The pitching was much better in the Detroit Tigers 1-0 victory over the Boston Red Sox, however, as Steve Gromek, Frank Lary and Bob Miller teamed up to blank the Sox with eight hits.

Johnson Opens Attack Against St. Louis Owner

WASHINGTON (AP) — Sen. Edwin C. Johnson (D-Colo) said today he feels "pretty optimistic" about his chances of pushing through Congress his bill to drive business out of baseball.

Johnson said in an interview that the Justice Department is moving in on baseball right now in an effort to get the Supreme Court to overturn its decision that baseball is not subject to the nation's antitrust laws.

"If my bill doesn't pass," he said, "I feel certain the Supreme Court will take back its protection of baseball."

Johnson, president of the Class A Western League and the leading congressional spokesman on baseball matters, said this is so because the Justice Department now has a clear antitrust case which it can bring against August A. Busch, owner of the St. Louis Cardinals.

Justice Department officials indicated that if Busch is using baseball to help peddle Budweiser beer, nothing in the recent Supreme Court decision prevents the government from moving against him.

Joe Giardello, Troy Clash in Video Feature

NEW YORK (AP)—Boxer Joey Giardello and puncher Willie (No Clinch) Troy clash tonight in a Madison Square Garden 10-rounder that has most everyone but the fighters puzzled over the outcome.

"I'll take him," said the cocky, 23-year old Giardello. "That stand-up style of his is my dish. I'll outbox him."

"Giardello is a good boxer and I expect he'll stay back," said confident, 21-year-old Willie. "That's okay with me. I'll go after him. I can beat him."

The two middleweight contenders are practically the only ones making a firm stand. The betting is a tossup—6-5 and take your pick. There has been considerable wagering over this boxer vs. puncher "natural" which has provoked more interest than most recent title fights.

The scrap will be broadcast (ABC) and telecast (NBC) locally and nationally.

Starting time is 10 p.m., EST.

Giardello, Brooklyn-born but now a resident of Philadelphia, has won four in a row—the last two being knockouts of Garth Panter and Walter Cartier. He has shown added confidence in his punch of late and has been gunning for knockouts. His record is 48-10-5 with 16 kayos. He has been stopped twice —by Carey Mace and Harold Green in 1950.

A good all-around boxer, Giardello, ranked as the No. 2 middleweight contender, said he will win on "speed, faster hands, and experience."

Troy, ranked seventh, has knocked out his last seven opponents. The six-foot Washington Negro has a 26-1 record with 20 kayos to his credit. He was TKOed in eight rounds by Holly Mims a year ago. Since then he has stopped Bobby Boyd, Lee Sala, Terry Moore, Randy Sandy, Charley Williams, Tuo Portuguze and Moses Ward.

Wesley Cinches Church League Basketball Title

Wesley Methodist was crowned champion of the YMCA Church Basketball League for the fourth year in succession last night by defeating Trinity Baptist in a playoff game 47-38.

Trinity opened the first half of the season with a team and record which appeared destined to end the Wesley reign as Church League leaders when it zipped through its first five games and the first round without a defeat. Wesley regrouped for the second half of the season and duplicated Trinity's first round record without losing a game. The playoff last night gave Wesley the crown. It will meet Toledo West Side Saturday afternoon at 1 p.m. in the first game of the YMCA District Church tournament. Findlay will face St. Petri of Toledo Central YMCA at 2 and the winners of each game face off at 8:30 to determine this district representative to the Ohio West Virginia Sports Festival. Marion Industries and Toledo Central will meet at 7:30 p.m. in the finals of the district industrial tournament on Saturday.

St. Petri, appearing here Saturday afternoon has won the YMCA State Church League championship for five years in succession.

Wesley opened last nights game by taking a 8-6 lead at the end of the first period but checked Trinity to only four points in the second stanza to hold a 21-10 half time lead. Widening its margin to 32-17 to start the final period, Wesley suddenly found itself being deluged by a late Trinity rally which pulled the losers to within two points with a little over a minute to go. Several fouls in the final minute and two lay-ups gave Wesley the victory.

In the only other game played, Marion AC moved into the semi-finals of the YMCA Industrial tournament by defeating Garvins Sunoco of Bucyrus 63-61 in a closely contested game. The score was knotted at 12-all after the first eight minutes and the AC lead 32-31 at halftime. Taking a four-point lead to enter the final period, the AC matched Bucyrus final quarter output until the final 10 seconds to win by the margin of one bucket. Bud England with 18 and Don West with 17 paced the winners while Young had 19 for the losers.

Philo Defeated; Delphos Enters Regional Finals

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP)—An entirely new cast of eight teams for the Ohio high school basketball championship tournaments in Cleveland next week is assured.

New Lexington St. Aloysius ousted the last of the 1953 finalists last night at Athens, defeating Philo's defending Class B regional champions 69-51. The victory sent New Lexington (21-4) into tonight's finals against Waverly (23-6) with the winner heading for Cleveland.

Mike Allen, St. Aloysius' 6-8½ center, poured 31 points through the hoop, and Bob Sagan added 26 for a 2-man total of 57 which more than matched the loser's entire output. It was Philo's second loss in 27 games, the team reaching the state finals a year ago with a 26-3 mark.

In the only other Thursday night game, Delphos St. John, the 1949 state Class B champion, reached the Toledo regional finals as the foe of Ottoville.

St. John (26-4) was a 61-53 victor over Leipsic (22-4), while Ottoville (23-2) nosed out once-beaten former state champion Huron 77-75. Huron had won 19 of 20. Delphos St. John and Ottoville meet tomorrow afternoon for the regional crown and a state tourney spot.

Allen of New Lexington has been the most sensational tournament scorer the Class B ranks have boasted in years. In 4 district and 1 regional game he piled up totals of 33, 29, 34, 47 and 31, just a point off a 35 average.

Along with tonight's Class B finals at Athens, semifinal games are scheduled at Troy and Youngstown in that division, and at Toledo Cincinnati, Kent and Canton in Class A.

Toledo's Class B final, between Delphos St. John and Ottoville, is scheduled tomorrow afternoon, but the other state qualifiers will be decided tomorrow night. State tournament drawings for next week's Friday - Saturday contests will be made here Sunday by the qualifying coaches.

One of tonight's big features sends the only two unbeaten Class B clubs, Vienna (29-0) and Copley (23-0), against each other at Youngstown. In Class A, unbeaten Niles (23-0) plays Canton South (18-4) at Canton, and Tecumseh (22-0) tangles with Portsmouth (13-9) at Cincinnati.

Of the Class B teams still in the scrap, Delphos St. John, Lockland Wayne and Columbiana are former state champions. They are in different regionals and all could reach the state meet for another try.

In Class A, of the 16 remaining teams, only Dayton Roosevelt, Hamilton Public and Portsmouth have ever captured the state laurels—and all are in the Cincinnati regional from which only one can emerge. Dayton Roosevelt (20-1) meets Hamilton (21-3) in the feature there tonight.

Morral Takes County Volleyball Tournament

Morral walked off with the Marion County volleyball title last night in the final round of play at Morral. The host team whipped Pleasant 15-12 and 11-0 in the games for the crown.

Morral previously had dropped LaRue, Prospect, Claridon and New Bloomington in its drive for the title. Each of the 11 schools in the county league entered two teams, one in each bracket. The games were played on a two out of three basis.

In Memory

Of our loving Bob who passed away three years ago, March 19, 1951.

This day brings back sad memories
Of our loved one gone to rest,
And those who think of him each day,
Are the ones who loved him best.
Friends may think that we forget him,
When they can see us smile,
But little do they know the sorrow
That is hid behind that smile.

Sadly missed by his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Carl Rinnert, Sisters Ada, Phyllis and Minnie and Grandmothers

In Loving Memory

Of Mrs. Della Thrush who passed away March 19, 1944.

You can only have one mother,
Patient, kind and true;
No other friend in all the world
Will be as true to you.
For all her loving kindness,
She asked nothing in return.
If all the world deserts you,
To your mother you can turn.
So all we can do dear Mother,
Is go and tend your grave,
And leave behind a token of love
To the best mother God ever gave.
You shall never be forgotten,
Never shall your memory fade.
Sweetest thoughts will aways linger,
Around the grave where you are laid.

THIS IS NOT SOMETHING YOU CAN RUN AWAY FROM, JIM! YOU'VE GOT TO FACE IT!
I CAN FACE IT, DOCTOR...BUT I CAN'T LET MY FAMILY SUFFER!

THEY'D BE SCARED TO DEATH! THEY WOULDN'T COME WITHIN SIX BLOCKS OF THIS HOUSE!
WE'RE ALWAYS FRIGHTENED OF THINGS WE DON'T UNDERSTAND JIM! PERHAPS WITH YOUR HELP WE MIGHT START A LITTLE TEACHING PROGRAM IN THIS COMMUNITY!
SORRY, DOCTOR! I WANT NO PART OF PLAYING GUINEA PIG!

STEVE CANYON By Milton Caniff

CANYON, YOU NEVER CHEW ME OUT FOR USING DRUGS — WHY NOT?
IT'S NONE OF MY BUSINESS IF YOU PAINT YOUR SKIN BLUE AND WORSHIP TREE TOADS!
WHY DID I DO IT? I'VE GOT A FINE WIFE AND A BIG-PAYING JOB — YET I'D TRADE THEM RIGHT NOW FOR ONE CHARGE OF HEROIN.
WELL — WHY DON'T YOU SAY SOMETHING? TELL ME WHAT A FOOL I AM? GO ON — SAY IT!
CHUM, IF YOU'RE GOING TO WEAR A HAIR SHIRT YOU'D BETTER STOP SCRATCHING! HERSELF MULDOON IS COMING WITH HER CHINESE RED PALS ..
I SEE!.. NOW THAT YOU KNOW THE ROUTINE OF PICKING UP THE HEROIN YOU'RE GOING TO TELL HER I'M AN ADDICT AND FREEZE ME OUT OF THE JOB! THAT'S IT! THAT'S IT!

Unemployment Believed Contributing

Ohio's Big Cities Note Crime Increase

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP)—Crime increasing in your town?

Statistics on January - February robberies and burglaries from some of the major population centers in Ohio do show an increase over a similar period last year.

Interpretation of those statistics vary. Some veteran police officials are reluctant to speak of "crime waves" and point out a check of a two-month period is hardly sufficient to base any conclusions.

Others, frankly, say conditions are worse and call for additional policemen to curb crime.

In Columbus, Capt. John Curtis, detective chief, and Assistant Safety Director Leo Phillips, have attributed increase in crime, in part, to growing unemployment. They have recommended a long-range program calling for assignment of at least 35 additional men to the detective bureau where personnel now ranges between 20 and 35.

"There is an increase in robberies all over the state," Capt. Curtis said. Police records here show 45 armed and unarmed robberies occurred here in January and 37 in February against 17 and 26 for corresponding months last year.

CURTIS SAID a majority of persons in the morning showups at police headquarters are unemployed. Unemployment, he said, breeds crime.

Cleveland, Cincinnati, Dayton, Hamilton, Warren, Springfield, Toledo, Youngstown — all report increases in some crimes in January - February compared to the same two months in 1953.

In Cleveland, one spokesman for the police department suggested the increase may be explained partially by the unusually mild weather of the past two months. He did not elaborate.

Police in Cleveland, Ohio's biggest metropolitan area, said they had 226 robberies and assaults to rob in the first two months of this year, compared with 170 in 1953. Burglaries there were reported at 490 against 386 in the first two months of last year.

In Cincinnati, from the first of the year to March 10, robberies totaled 70 compared to 48 in the same period last year, an increase of 45.8 per cent. Arrests there for robberies this year up to March 10 numbered 48 compared to 29 last year in the same period, an increase of 65.5 per cent. For the same period, there were 302 burglaries this year compared to 253 last year, an increase of 19.4 per cent.

CINCINNATI POLICE Chief Stanley Schrotel says the recent wave of holdups there is "not alarming" and adds that the total for this year is below the average. "We are greatly concerned about the robberies, and are bending every effort to catch the offenders," he said, adding that 'at the same time we cannot neglect other law enforcement."

Here are some figure from other cities for the January-February period in 1954 and 1953:

Dayton: Robberies, 6 in 1954 and 34 in 1953; burglaries 157 in 1954 and 165 in 1953. Montgomery County: Robberies, 13 in 1954 and 6 in 1953; burglaries, 40 in 1954 and 30 in 1953.

Dayton Police Capt. Roy T. Shepard, head of detectives, says, "We are concerned about the slight increase in Class One crimes, but not alarmed." He said the figures show an overall increase of 1 per cent in crime.

Montgomery County Sheriff Bernard Kelter says: "Crime is way up."

Hamilton: Robberies, 8 this year, 1 in 1953; burglaries, 41 so far this year as against 55 same time in 1953.

Middletown: Robberies, two this year against three for same period last year, and 24 burglaries this year compared to 12 same time last year. Police Chief Joseph Blackmore calls the situation normal in Middletown.

Warren: Robberies, 5 times this year compared to 2 a year ago; burglaries, 46 this year, 12 in one office building, against 13 same period last year.

Springfield: Robberies, 5 this year, 3 last year; burglaries, 49 this year, 45 last year.

Zanesville: Burglaries, 27 this year, 19 last year, robberies, one this year compared to none in same period last year; grand larcenies 5 this year compared to 13 last year.

Toledo: Robberies, 31 this year, 31 last year; burglaries, 257 this year, 178 last year. Total felonies and misdemeanors this year 1,039 compared to 845 same period last year. Police said there was a 23 per cent increase in the first two months of 1954 in known offenses, with 36.1 per cent solved—the same percentage for the same period last year.

Youngstown: Both robberies and burglaries have increased. Robberies, 27 for January and February compared to 23 for January, February and March last year. Burglaries for the first two months this year total 87 compared to 84 for the first three months in 1953.

Lenten Meditations

This is one in a series of Lenten meditations prepared by the members of the Marion County Ministerial Association for publication in The Star.

Whatsoever Ye Desire

By REV. WARREN W. LINDSTROM
Pastor of Likens Covenant Church

"Therefore I say unto you, What things soever ye desire, when ye pray, believe that ye receive them, and ye shall have them." —Mark 11:24.

On the last day of His public ministry Jesus took an opportunity to teach His disciples a lesson in prayer.

On the surface, "Whatever ye desire" might appear to be a ticket to selfish indulgence. However, there is a universal condition involved which must be met. Hallesby in his book on prayer states, "The fundamental law in prayer is this: Prayer is given and ordained for the purpose of glorifying God." So, if we are praying merely to satisfy our selfish whims, we might as well stop as far as getting anything from God is concerned.

If on the other hand, what we pray for will glorify God, and we believe He will hear and answer us, we have the assurance of receiving it. For God to work we must not only believe that He can do it, but that He will do it. All wrapped up in the act of asking is the expectancy of receiving.

We need to learn to pray during this Lenten season in order to better understand what it cost Jesus to redeem us.

PRAYER: "Teach us, Father, so to learn Thy will and believe Thee that in asking we may receive."

Special Hours Announced

Personal Property Tax Deadline Set March 31

Announcement of special office hours, along with a reminder that deadline for filing personal property tax returns is fast approaching, was issued today by Marion County Auditor Maurice C. Clements.

Before the March 31 deadline, all persons, partnerships, associations, and corporations engaged in business, such as manufacturers, merchants, farmers, lawyers, doctors, dentists, accountants, etc., are required to file personal property tax returns at the auditors office in the Courthouse.

—:—

ALL RESIDENTS of Ohio owning intangible property regardless of its use, such as stocks, bonds, notes, and other intangible property, are also required to file returns. Mandatory penalties are provided by statute for the filing of returns after March 31.

The rate of tax on tangible property is identical with the rate on real estate and public utility property for a given taxing district, Clements said.

In the intangible property category, productive investments are taxed at five per cent of the income yield, unproductive investments at two mills on each dollar valuation, and deposits at two mills on the dollar. Moneys, credits, and other taxable intangibles are taxed at three mills on each dollar valuation.

TAXES COLLECTED are paid to the local county treasurer and is used for local schools, libraries, health, police and fire services. Tax forms for filing returns and information as to to provisions of the law may be obtained from Clements office.

Special office hours will begin this Saturday when the auditors office will be open from 8:30 a.m. to 3:30 p.m. Beginning Monday, and extending through Wednesday, March 31, the office will be open from 8:30 a.m. to 4:30 p.m., including Saturday, March 27.

Crooner Haymes' Attorney Planning New Legal Action

LOS ANGELES (AP) — Crooner Dick Haymes' attorney doubts the constitutionality of a law that barred the Argentina-born entertainer from entering the United States after visiting Rita Hayworth in Honolulu last summer.

David C. Marcus, the attorney, said today he is filing a brief that maintains that the exclusion of "lawful resident aliens from the United States because of a sojourn in a territory of the United States . . . is unreasonable and unconstitutional."

The government seeks to deport Haymes for what it maintains was his illegal re-entry into this country after his visit to Miss Hayworth, whom he later married.

Zanesville Woman Gets Her Wish To Go to Jail

ZANESVILLE, Ohio (AP) — Mary Louise McNerney, 23, hurled a pop bottle through the plate glass window of a Zanesville cafe yesterday.

"All of my friends have been in jail and I wanted to see what it was like," she replied.

Municipal Judge Robert J. Merry obliged: $35 and costs. She chose to serve it out at the rate of $3 a day.

Chinaman Weds Sister in Attempt To Get Her in U.S.

SAN FRANCISCO —Chin Tong Foot, who reportedly married his sister in Hong Kong so she could enter the United States, was arrested by immigration authorities as he stepped off the liner President Cleveland yesterday.

He was held as an alien who doesn't have proper papers for admission into the United States, although for 15 years he has been known as an American citizen.

As a sister of a citizen the "bride" could not enter the United States. But as a wife of an American she could. American authorities in Hong Kong said Chin apparently planned to arrange for her entrance after his return.

Immigration Commissioner Bruce Barber said, "We have evidence that this man is an imposter and not a citizen at all."

Today members of the committee are visiting the company's plant in McArthur, O. The company manufactures modern pressurized creosote railroad materials.

Cook Chinese Style Meal During Lent

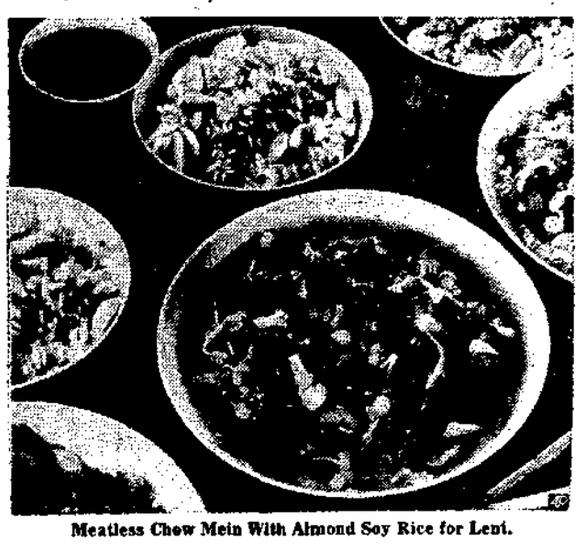
Almond Soy Rice Served With Meatless Chow Mein Is Tasty

By CECILY BROWNSTONE
Associated Press Food Editor

Cook Chinese-style for one of your Lenten meals. We tried the idea ourselves and can recommend it. Our main course was the new frozen meatless chow mein accompanied by Almond Soy Rice, and our family greatly enjoyed both dishes. As a matter of fact, I thought we were preparing enough of the rice for six people; I noticed that four eaters did away with every last grain!

Frozen chow mein is a new product that comes in three varieties: chicken, beef and meatless. It's an especially good product, in our opinion, because the vegetables stay crisp and the gravy is well flavored. Crisp Chinese noodles are packed along with the chow mein; although the package suggests serving the noodles "as is," we prefer to heat them in the oven. We tried serving three packages of the chow mein to four people, to see if we could keep our menu cost down, but our tasters all complained! They liked the chow mein so well that they insisted one package is not too much for each person served.

For the start of your Lenten Chinese-style meal, take a tip from the usual bill of fare in a Chinese - American restaurant. Tomato juice with saltines, or chicken soup with soft noodles or rice, will make an acceptable first course. Or if you expect company at this meal, you might serve a more elaborate appetizer and have shrimp dipped in a batter and fried.



Meatless Chow Mein With Almond Soy Rice for Lent.

Dessert might be pineapple slices and almond cookies. Or you could have pineapple, lemon or orange sherbet. Or maybe fancy broiled or baked peaches? If you can get hold of some ginger marmalade, put a spoonful of it in each peach cavity before heating, then serve with whipped cream. It's a combination we favor.

ALMOND SOY RICE

Ingredients: ¼ cup butter or margarine, 2 cups converted-type rice, 2½ cups boiling water, ¼ cup soy sauce, 2 tablespoons butter or margarine, 1 cup blanched slivered almonds.

Method: Heat ¼ cup butter in large heavy skillet over low heat. Add rice and stir constantly until rice is golden-brown. Add water and soy sauce; cover skillet tightly. Simmer 40 minutes or until liquid is absorbed and rice cooked through. Melt 2 tablespoons butter in a small skillet; add almonds; cook and stir over low heat until almonds are lightly browned. Stir almonds into rice. Makes 6 servings. Serve with frozen meatless chow mein heated according to package directions.

Akron Trio Charged With Armed Robbery

CANTON, Ohio (AP)—Three men were arrested and a youth was held for questioning Thursday after one bullet hit two men and passed through the clothing of another during a $200 gasoline station robbery.

Nathaniel Boyd, station operator, suffered a scalp wound. A 17-year-old Akron boy turned up at a hospital with a wounded arm. After talking to him police placed armed robbery charges against Pleasant Payne, 20, James Clipper, 20, and Grant Downing, 20, all of Akron.

The youth, who was not charged immediately, said the slug fired by one of the trio also went through Clipper's clothing.

In 1940, about one U.S. civilian jobholder in 13 worked for a federal, state or local government, compared to one in 9 today.

Poisoned Darts Reported Missing From Museum

NEW YORK —A gourdful of toothpick-like blowgun darts has disappeared from a Peruvian exhibit at the Museum of Natural History. The museum warned they may have been dipped in a poison, curare.

"The likelihood of any adult or healthy child suffering serious poisoning from one is slight," the museum said. But it advised all who may have touched a dart to seek medical care.

Estimates

It is more clearly evident each time the Bureau of the Census produces another unemployment estimate that there has been no improvement since the same kind of estimates were making news in the thirties.

The estimate now in style is based on samplings from 230 areas. This replaces a former system which used samplings from only 68 areas.

According to the latest samplings, there were 3,671,000 persons unemployed in the United States during February. Here is the way the estimate is made:

The total labor force in the United States was estimated at 63,725,000. The total employment in the United States was estimated at 60,054,000. The difference between the two totals is 3,671,000—the unemployed.

The labor force is theoretically composed of all civilians 14 years old and older, unless they are in school, permanently unable to work, retired, voluntarily idle, seasonal workers who are not working because of that circumstance, or doing housework in their own homes.

During the thirties, when the question first was asked about the reliability of unemployment estimates, there had not been the extensive and disillusioning experience with sampling which has left most Americans mistrustful of the method.

The trouble is not that the unemployment estimate may be too low, as the CIO says it is, or that it may be too high which others say it is. The trouble is that no one has complete confidence in the sampling method.

It works only under ideal conditions. Although no one questions the existence of unemployment or the seriousness of the situation if the opening of spring activity does not lighten it, it is disconcerting to realie that there is no general confidence in the statistics being used to reflect conditions.

When it was using sampling from 68 areas, the Bureau of the Census arrived at an estimate of 4,684,000 for unemployment in 1950, following the letdown in 1950.

Inventor of the Doorknob

What follows in this editorial is serious, although the next two paragrpahs are humorous.

The Russians now say a Russky named Polsunov invented the steam engine in a town in Siberia in 1763, long before James Watts ever had the idea.

The reason Polsunov never got credit, says Ivestia, the government newspaper, was because the Russians of his day didn't know how to exploit his invention. Nevertheless, he was the genius who thought up the steam engine in the first place.

Then there was the inventor of the doorknob. Ivestia will have a piece about him some day. His name was Ivan Awfulich. He lived in Siberia, close to the fellow who invented the steam engine.

The doorknob came to him in a vision one winter night so he invented it. But he didn't know what to do with it because at the time he didn't know what it was. To him it looked and felt exactly like a little snowball. No one would have taken him seriously if he had gone about attaching snowballs to doors, which at that time were pulled open with latchstrings, which were always left out as a gesture of hospitality.

So Awfulich missed fame. Izvestia will catch up to him some day, too — after it has tracked down the Russky who first thought of the latch string but was sidetracked because at the time there were no doors.

Competition for Health

Hope has been added to desire in the long quest for security against polio. And competition has been added, too. This may be a year of historic accomplishment.

It is evident from the frequency of statements being made for and against the experiment being conducted with the vaccine developed by Dr. Jonas E. Salk, University of Pittsburgh bacteriologist, that other researchers have ideas of their own about the way to establish security.

Their professional rivalry may prove to be the best thing that could have happened. Itis rivalry of means only; all of them are trying to accomplish the same thing.

Moreover, all of them are apparently narrowing down their thinking to the same line of probability — that polio ultimately will be controlled by a series of injections which will establish permanent immunity by stimulating generation of anti-bodies in the blood stream.

The Salk method will be field-tested this year with thousands of children. If the tests prove to be satisfactory, more conclusive tests will be attempted next year. There is good reason to believe that before the end of the decade polio will be under control, either with the method developed by Dr. Salk, a method developed by a friendly rival, or a combination of methods.

Moscow's Game

By David Lawrence

Reds Prefer Cold War to Costly Atomic Variety

What is Russia's game? What are her plans and intentions?

All speeches coming out of the Communist ranks, including addresses by both Malenkov and Molotov in the last few days, indicate a desire to avoid a hot war and even to put an end to the "cold war."

Why should Malenkov emphasize that, "With the existence of modern means of destruction, a third world war would mean destruction of civilization"?

The answer is that he wishes his own people not to believe the cries from the free world that Soviet Russia has aggressive intentions. Also he is impressed with America's growing armament program. He doesn't want a big atomic war.

Is Russia, therefore, interested primarily in the pursuit of the "cold war," which thus far has added nearly 600,000,000 persons to the side of the Communists in Europe and Asia without involving a single regiment of Soviet troops?

The answer is that the "cold War" offers further opportunities for infiltration of free countries and also for the acquisition of important raw materials needed in the next five years for the Soviet armament program.

DOES RUSSIA concede that it wants to pursue the "cold war"? Of course not. Reiterating that its intentions are peaceful at all times, the spokesman for Soviet Russia who succeeded Stalin — Premier Malenkov — now says that Soviet Russia "takes a strong stand against the policy of a cold war."

Where is the "cold war" being fought today? In Italy, in France and in Great Britain, in India and in the Near East, and also in Africa and Latin America as well as within the United States.

Just what is the "cold war"? It is a method of warefare inside free countries which seeks, through Communist - front organizations and through political influence, to gain control of governments or at least to influence the trend of its policies.

How is such infiltration accomplished? In some countries, like France and Italy, where the Communist party is not regarded as a conspiracy, direct access is gained to cabinets and government departments where important information is acquired daily as to the trend of policies while they are being shaped.

This permits Moscow to move on the diplomatic scene in ways that cause international friction and weaken the solidarity of the free world.

MacLean and Burgess, formerly of the British Foreign Office, sit behind the Iron Curtain advising the Russians, The British keep on pooh-poohing the Communist menace and crying out against "McCarthyism."

IS THERE OTHER proof of infiltration? Recently the British government discovered a Communist plot to take over the colonial government in British Guiana on the north coast of South America. The United States government has discovered the same state of affairs in Guatemala.

There are Communist activities in other Latin American countries. It is obviously Soviet strategy to make as much trouble as possible for what is sometimes referred to as our "backyard," because of Washington's need for Latin American votes in the United Nations Assembly.

What is the present objective of the Soviets in the "cold war"? It is to drive a wedge between Great Britain and France, on the one hand, and the United States on the other. It is aimed at producing dissension by a campaign inside free countries to resume trade between Europe and the Iron Curtain countries. The door is being opened to such trade.

The United States government is wobbling on the issue. The Soviets see a chance of getting Britain and other countries so entangled in trade that Russia will acquire in the next few years strategic materials and machinery acutely needed for armament and also for improvement of the Moscow government's internal position through the production of more consumer goods.

What is the American government doing in the "cold war"? Mostly it is carrying on propaganda through radio and public statements by government officials here, but is weakened by "left wing" pressure inside the United States to bring about the recog nition of the government of Red China, even though it has been declared an aggressor by the United Nations.

ONCE RED CHINA is admitted to the United Nations, the prestige of the United States all over the world will be gravely damaged in the "cold war."

What about the hot spot in the "cold war"—Indochina? This is the trump card of the Soviets. They see the French anxious to pull out and they see the parliament in Paris divided through Communist influence and they see all of Southeast Asia soon falling into the hands of the Soviets once Indochina is surrendered by a phony armistice set-up like Korea.

What about Korea? The Soviets the settlement of the Korean issues because, by an indefinite postponement, they can keep bogged down in the Far East American military forces which might be needed in Europe in a sudden emergency.

On balance, the Soviets hold a strong position in the "cold War," and they are receiving at the moment their greatest stimulus from the operations of the American "left wing" and its auxiliaries here and abroad who are pooh-poohing the Communist menace of infiltration inside the United States and who regularly denounce penetrating investigations hitherto conducted by congressional committees.

The "cold war," on the whole, goes well for Soviet Russia, and that's the war Moscow is most eager to win because it is less expensive in men and money than a third world war of the atomic variety.

For Men Only

By TRUMAN TWILL

It's beginning to look as if I would never get the hang of an ax. This is as hard for me to admit as it would be for a golfer to admit he would never master a putter.

Time is running out, and I started late on the ax deal anyway. I had to go into it with underdeveloped arms, a so-so back and none-too-good vision.

But even with an ax honed to a razor edge and fitted with a good handle, I have acquired no more finesse than a new father with a first baby.

My backswing continues to be jerky and uncertain. My follow-through is foggy and vague. If I can smack the bit of the ax twice into the same cut, it is by purest accident.

The chips never fly. The ax blows do not ring out sharp and clear in the forest. There is no need to cry, "Timber!" What saplings I destroy with ax work are nibbled to death, not cut down clean in the prime of life.

Almost as baffling as the ax is the scythe, another implement I started late to try to use in a workmanlike manner. But with the scythe there is an important difference.

For five minutes with the wind in the right direction and the right kind of undergrowth to cut down, I can go through the motions of being a grim reaper. But that does it. My charley horses start to nicker.

Anyone who doubts that the old boys who carved this country out of the wilderness performed heroic deeds needs only to work out for an hour with a scythe or an ax to appreciate what they did 52 weeks a year, six days a week and sometimes 14 hours a day.

Yet it continues to be my spare-time ambition to become reasonably proficient in the use of the basic tools which men have made their way on the land — the ax, scythe, spade, hoe and rake.

My efforts with the spade, hoe and rake have been more rewarding. The ordinary hoe now has been replaced with several far more satisfactory tools, but I mastered the hoe by working endless rows of corn and beans at an age when such things are easy to learn.

I have learned how to spade for relatively long periods of time without tiring since I became a weekend gardener in RFD nearly five years ago. My raking is nothing to take movies of but neither is it anything to apologize for when old rakes get together.

There is another implement in my arsenal of weapons for battling nature which I learned to use exceptionally well because of an accidental circumstance.

It is the three-tined for used for haying chores. On the farm where I spent my summers, there was a firm fixation against hay loaders. Consequently, everybody on the place "pitched in" to get the hay off the ground and into the big hay mows in the bank barn when there was hay down.

I mastered the pitchfork then and there. By the time I was shaving once every two weeks I could wrap up a hay cock and loft the top half into a hay rigging like a bumpkin born and bred.

But that ax . . .

And that scythe. . .

Even if I took lessons from a pro, I'd never get the hang of them. They were built for real men.

Daily Bible Thought

We should appreciate them when they do come! We should not wait till we are in desperate need. "Surely goodness and mercy shall follow me all the days of my life. — Ps. 23:6.

Why Fatso Won

Postal Pay Report Full of Surprises

By Jay G. Hayden

President Eisenhower's effort to ward off an election year raid on tax revenue far outrunning reduction in expenditures has a counterpart in the struggle between rate increases and pay raises in the Post Office Department.

Postmaster General Summerfield has asked Congress for boosts in postal rates, including a rise from 3 to 4 cents in the charge for out-of-town letters, to complete the job of wiping out a 746 million dollar deficit inherited from his predecessor.

Simultaneously, Summerfield has proposed a revamping of postal pay schedules which would provide an average increase of about four cents an hour for the 50,000 departmental employes at a cost of 80 million dollars a year.

The difficulty is that these proposals are being battered both ways by powerful lobbies, threatening defeat of every congressman who dares to oppose them.

Within the week some 5,000 delegates from the labor unions of postal clerks and letter carriers, drawing government pay in the process, and coming in groups from every congressional district, have been hotfooting through the House and Senate office buildings, demanding an $800 across-the-board pay increase for all their members.

-:-

SUCH A RIASE would cost 400 million dollars a year, to be paid by the nation's taxpayers except as still higher postal rate increases were provided.

Hounding the congressmen at the same time are a variety of lobbyists, trying to head off any rise in postage rates.

Knowing that he faced a hard fight on the pay question, Summerfield began by hiring an independent business survey organization, George Fry & Associates, to make a complete examination of postal pay scales and the work done under them. The results are startling, particularly as showing that the letter carriers and clerks massed in big unions, are paid more than similar employes in private industry, while higher level postal work managers are grossly underpaid. Specifically the report says:

Earnings of regular postal clerks and carriers, now averaging $1.96 per hour for a 40-hour week wage of $78.26, have increased more since 1939 than the cost-of-living index. That group averages substantially more pay than do teachers and principals of all elementary and secondary schools in the country.

THEY ARE BETTER paid than either policemen or firemen in the cities of New York, Philadelphia and Chicago, or the average of workers nationwide in manufacturing industries up to and including the rank of foreman.

Further, this study fails to take account of the circumstance that postal clerks and carriers with 15 years or more of service get 26 days of annual leave with full pay, plus eight paid-for holidays and 13 days of sick leave — a total of 47 days deduction from 208-day-a-year over-all maximum. Assuming they take all their allowed layoffs, these government employes work 181 days out of each annual 365.

In comparison, higher ranking employes of the Post Office service have steadily lost ground and the opportunity of clerks and carriers to move up to better jobs has declined. Summerfield told Congress recently:

"The postal establishment is not too far away from the absurb situation of paying most of its employes about the same salary regardless of the difference in responsibility involved."

Thus the postmaster at New York, the biggest field job in the service, receives $13,700 a year.

-:-

THAT IS THE MOST any postmaster can get. A job of comparable responsibility with any big city postmaster in private industry would demand $17,100 a year.

Similarly general superintendents of Post Office buildings receive a maximum of $6,900 a year; department superintendents $6,470; general foremen $5.370 and foremen $4,896.

Back in 1930 top postmasters averaged 11 1 times the salary of the lowest level post office employes — custodial labor. Today the salary differential between the postmaster at New York and the janitor in an average small-town post office is only 4.8 times.

Summerfield's new wage plan is designed to improve efficiency by scaling wages more in accordance with the brains and responsibility entailed and opening avenues of swifter promotion for employes who deliver the goods.

The top postmaster salary is stepped up only a little — $14,800 as against $21,000 recommended by the Fry report. Salaries of supervisory employes in the middle brackets are sharply advanced, and the time required for an exceptionally able employe to move up the line according to his ability is reduced.

Farm Girls More Popular

By HARRISON W. FRY

Farm girls are in greater demand as wives than town girls, at least in Pennsylvania.

There are probably a number of reasons, the professors at Pennsylvania State College suggest. One undoubtedly is that the farm girl is more willing to trust her man to make good and therefore takes him earlier than the town girl. The town girl has her sights set higher in the occupational scale for a man who can buy her mink coats early in life.

Perhaps, too, it is suggested, there is still a lingering hope that the farm girl can bake an apple pie. National surveys have shown that apple pie ranks with ice cream as the favorite dessert of the American male.

Some eight years ago the college's Department of Agricultural Economics and Rural Sociology set up a study to determine how Pennsylvania's rural young people make out when they leave home to seek their fortunes elsewhere.

Of 3,000 rural high school sophomores surveyed at the start of the project, more than one-fourth had moved to urban centers four years later. Girls were more likely to have made the move than boys. But the girls from the farms generally lagged behind the boys in the salaries they made in the towns and cities.

The farm boys are not staying down on the farm either. Less than half the farm boys were farming or working as hired farm labor on their first job after leaving school.

Most boys from the farms, when they come to the cities, get blue-collar jobs as skilled mechanics, paying high wages. The boys from the villages still predominantly stick to the white collar jobs. Roy C. Buck is in charge of the study, with John T. Allen as research assistant.

Here in America we are increasingly aware of the peril of the babysitter we know nothing about, so we aren't about to leave that promising infant, Europe, with nobody to mind it but Russia, even though she offers to work cheap.

The Once Over

By H. I. Phillips

Fables of 1954

Once upon a time in the Kingdom of Kwazyland, there was a poor little rich girl who had put in long weary hours counting money. The drab life around safety deposit vaults, accountants and high-priced lawyers had made her very sad. Caught in the underprivileged atmosphere of town and country mansions and the mood of the coldly clicking adding machines she craved love. Lo, the young woman found a lucky charm in the form of a solid gold rabbit foot from a bunny caught in the warrens of Fort Knox. "Rub this charm and get thy wish," a voice said. The young woman rubbed and said, "I wish for a fairy prince."

-:-

"I want one who has the qualities of Galahad, Launcelot, Gregory Peck, Lochinvar and maybe Clark Gable," she continued. "He must be tall, handsome, valient, unselfish and have whitewall tires, lend-lease."

"Let me see," said a fairy godmother, suddenly appearing. "Didn't I grant a wish like this four times already?"

"You keep records?" exclaimed the young woman.

-:-

Touched by tearful complaints that the previous models were no good, the fairy godmother held up a huge card bearing the numeral "FIVE" and said, "Stop crying. Your wish, with the serial number clearly stamped on it, is granted!"

Presto! A suitor appeared radiant and receptive. "Tip the fairy godmother," he ordered. "I'm a little short of change."

The poor little rich girl gave the fairy godmother $500,000 and, addressing the suitor, said, "Are you Galahad, Launcelot, Lochinvar, Gregory Peck and maybe Clark Gable?"

"Never has a girl asked for so many from a man with so little who seeks so much," was the reply.

"Haven't I seen you someplace before?" the young woman asked.

"Everybody has seen me someplace before," he replied frankly. "Come! Fly with me!"

-:-

"You have a plane without?" asked the girl.

"'Without' is right," said the suitor. "I am strictly an idea man. You must take care of the details. You can charter a fifty-passenger plane for four-thousand-eight-hundred dollars. Love is like that."

-:-

And so they were married and flew to the coast of Lapis Lazuli, where the bride had leased the winter palace of the Agha Whoozis. "You are not happy," observed the bride.

"No. Something is missing in my life. I think it is a stable of polo ponies," said the bridegroom. So she bought him polo ponies in all models and supplied him with platinum mallets. "You are still unhappy?" she observed later. "What has the other 'Strike It Rich' program got that I haven't got?"

This annoyed the groom. His ardor now dipped 20 degrees from its previous high of two above zero, chilling the bride deeply.

"Well, it's been a long marriage," sighed the poor little rich girl, starting to pack. "Sometimes it seemed only yesterday."

"It WAS YESTERDAY," said the groom, stepping aside to permit the inrushing lawyers, marching in columns of eight.

(Next week: the big mystery drama: "Are Adults Setting A Good Pattern For The Kiddies?")

The question agitating Washington now seems to be: "What're we gonna have rain or SCHINE?"

The airbrakes were applied too suddenly on the N.Y. Central the other day bringing a startled cry, "We must have run into another Young Committee."

Ex-King Farouk's snuffbox was sold at auction for $3,000 . . . Nevertheless he will continue to be called "Snuffy" instead of "Your Highness" by most Egyptians.

What's the biggest bargain you can buy today?

How about electricity?

Of course, your electric bill may be bigger than it used to be, but the facts are that in the last 15 years, even with recent rate increases, the average price per kilowatt-hour of electricity has actually gone down! What boosts your bill is the fact that today you use 2 to 3 times as much, if you're an average user.

Just think for a minute of all the electric appliances you can enjoy today: automatic washer, ironer (ironing in half the time!), mixer, food freezer (sweet June peas in January!), dishwasher (no more dishpan hands!), vacuum cleaner, disposal unit — to name just a few time-and-work savers, many of which didn't even exist 15 years ago.

Small wonder if your bill looks bigger. But look at all you're getting for it! And at a price so low that electricity is still the biggest bargain in the family budget today!
